[JULY, MDCCLXVIII.] THE [NUMB. 136.]

SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1768.

LONDON, MARCH 30.

AN opulent electoſ in a certain borough in the weſt, was lately offered 30l. a year, and 700l. in money, for his vote and intereſt, which he nobly refuſed.

This day his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Monaco, at hoſe palace his late Royal Highneſs the Duke of York died, as introduced to his Majeſty at St. James's, and graciouſly ceived.

APRIL 2. Among the many houſes of perſons of diſtinction at the weſt end of the town that were illuminated Tueſday night, on account of Mr. Wilkes being elected night of the ſhire for the county of Middleſex, were thoſe their Royal Highneſſes the Dukes of Glouceſter and Cumrland.

Monday died in Oxford road, Mr. Alexander M'Cloud, e news of Mr. Wilkes's election affected him in ſuch a nner, that he expired ſoon after.

The expences of the election for Northampton, amount 60,000 l. at leaſt, to both parties.

Mr. Wilkes during his exile, enjoyed a penſion of 1200l. r annum, by a private ſubſcription of a few friends, among om are ſeveral Right Honourables of the preſent miniſtry. Lord R———n we hear has loſt a thouſand guineas to ty, by betting againſt Mr. Wilkes.

APRIL 4. It having been reported to a great perſonage, at a liveryman was threatened with the loſs of his place r not voting at the city election agreeable to order, aſked, If the man had voted according to his engagements?" hich being anſwered in the affirmative, it was replied, Had he voted contrary to his engagement, he ſhould certainly have been diſcharged."

We have it confirmed to us, that Mr. Wilkes will be abled to diſcharge all his debts, principally by the aſſiſtce of an amiable and patriotic nobleman.

The general toaſt among the popular party, now is, May Liberty never want a Wilkes, and may Wilkes ver want Liberty."

The celebrated Triſtram Shandy was privately interred in new burying ground belonging to the pariſh of St. eorge's, Hanover Square, at twelve o'clock at noon, tended only by two Gentlemen in a mourning coach, and bell tolling.

This morning at eleven o'clock, and not before, Mr. Wilkes ſet out for Bath.

It is ſaid that a gentleman of the firſt eminence in the law, as given it as his opinion, that the outlawry againſt Mr. Wilkes is not legal.

It is ſaid that among the ſeveral flaws in Mr. Wilkes's outlawry, one is, that he was not declared an outlaw, in three different pariſhes in the county where he lived. And t is likewiſe ſaid, that the outlawry was not regiſtered in the proper office.

We hear that a number of people will ſoon embark for America, at the expence of the government, to ſettle there, with their families.

We hear by a gentleman who arrived from France, that n Tueſday evening when he landed at Dover, the whole wn was illuminated, and every town he travelled through, l he arrived in London.

The Codicil of the will of Sir Andrew Chadwick, Kt. favour of Mr. Wilkes, is in the following terms, "Item, give and bequeath, to John Wilkes, Eſq; late Member r Ayleſbury, 1000l. as a teſtimony of his intrepid conduct oppoſing a wicked, corrupt and profligate adminiſtration."

The following toaſt, is drank every night. "May the ght of Liberty never be put out by a Scotch extinguiſher."

On Tueſday night the mob broke the windows of his race the Duke of Argyle's houſe in Soho Square, and alſo e windows of his ſon, the Marquis of Lorn's houſe in rgyle buildings, where they did conſiderable damage, every ndow belonging to the Earl of Bute's houſe in South udley-ſtreet, were ſo broke that ſcarce a pane of glaſs was t whole.

We hear that an offer was made to Mr. Wilkes by his ends, that if he choſe any one to join candidate with him, y would hold for them jointly; on which Mr. Wilkes lied, that he was infinitely obliged to them for the offer, t as the public had intereſted itſelf ſo much in his favour, thought himſelf ſufficiently honoured if they choſe him, thout preſuming to dictate their choice of any one elſe, d very politely declined the offer.

It is ſaid the damage done to Lord Bute's houſe, by the b on Monday night laſt, cannot be repaired for leſs than ool. a great deal of rich furniture having been broke to ces.

APRIL 5. It is ſaid the following changes in the miniſtry ll take place in a few days: The Marquis of Rockingham, ſt Lord of the Treaſury. The Earl of Sandwich, cretary of State. Earl Temple, Lord Privy Seal. The rl of Halifax, Secretary of State for North-America. e Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Maſter of the Horſe. e Grace the Duke of Portland, Lord Chamberlain. The ght Hon. Mr Dowdeſwell, Chancellor of the Exchequer. rl Gower, Preſident of the Council.

No publication of the Polls for the city of London, and nty of Middleſex.

If the S—— ſhould order the poll to be printed, Mr. —'s friends are determined that his voters names ſhould printed in characters of gold, be ſtuck up at every public ce in the city, and the copy thereof, be preſented to each mber of the C——t of A——n and C———n C——l, h a motto, &c. &c. And have generouſly reſolved to ieve every liveryman (if any attempt of that kind ſhould made) who ſhall ſuffer for his freedom in voting for him.

On Saturday laſt ſailing orders were ſent to Portſmouth for e Majeſty's ſhips Niger, Liverpool, and the Merlin ſloop, to proceed to their ſtation at Newfoundland with the firſt fair wind.

We are informed by letters from Poland, that the brother of the Biſhop of Caminieck is at the head of a new confederacy which has been ſuddenly formed in Podelia, on the confines of Turky.

As ſoon as the Middleſex election was ended in favour of Mr. Wilkes, a perſon was employed to carry the news to ſome of his friends at Paris: A native of Switzerland undertook to deliver the ſame in 32 hours; he accordingly ſet out by agreement, and performed the journey in 47 hours, notwithſtanding he was detained nine hours in an open boat on the ſeas, for which he has ſince received an adequate reward. The man was ſo much galled when he came to Paris, that the blood ran out of the knees of his breeches.

From LLOYD'S EVENING POST.

Letter from a Gentleman in Ireland to his friend in London.

My dare Phelim, Dublin, Dec. 28, 1767.

I Dare ſay you have been long expecting to hare from me, becaſe when I left your big city I promiſed to give you a ſmall account of our doings here.

Devil burn me, but I'd rather be in Dublin Caſtle juſt now than in Heaven. You may talk of your Halifaxes and Northumberlands, but they are nobody, hony! to our L——d L———t.

By Jaſus, but this L——d T——— is a ſwate fellow, and lives as grand as the Mogul, or our couſin O'Neil, and he's always after pleaſing us.

Upon my conſcience, he has no more pride than a beggarman. You may ſee his own ſelf talking to the poor ſoldiers, and giving away handfuls of money every hour in the day upon Eſſex-bridge. Good luck to him; he's a deviliſh honeſt fellow, and loves claret, (as my Lord Mayor ſays) as well as if he was born in Ballyſhannon.

Devil burn me, but he's very deſarving, for he ſtrives all he can to pleaſe us. Would you believe it now? He's going to let his wife lye in of a fine Iriſh boy, and ſhe ſays he ſhall be foſtered in Trinity College. Bleſſings on her ſwate face! ſhe's as charming a crature as any in Dublin, and is always giving away mate, and money, and balls, and Burgummy.

Upon my conſcience, we can't find fault neither with any of his houſhold: The Stewart and Comptroller are both big enough to be hares, and never aſy but when they're making one drink and ate proſperity to Ireland; and as for the Secretaries, Chaplins, and Gentlemen, they can make ſpeaches, ſarmons, and varſes, and ſhoot, and play upon the fiddle. Long life to them all.

Devil burn me, my dare Phelim, but I wiſh very often for you and my couſin Mac Dermot, on a Tueſday night, to dance a lilt at the Caſtle, and to trim the ſhampain.

My ſervice to Peggy Mc Culloch, and deſire her to be after ſending me a round of London brawn, for which I'll return he a Dublin rochſpun. I am your ſincere couſin,

SULLIVAN O'NIEL.

The HERMIT's EMPIRE. An ODE.

A Monarch in my ruſtic bower,
O'er whom, even fortune has no power,
Can neither raiſe nor ſink me lower,
Move how ſhe will.

An honeſt Heart is always gay;
In thoughtful heads ſweet notions play,
That charm alike in buſy day,
And darkneſs ſtill.

I heed not how the World goes round,
Whence titles flow, where wealth is found,
My Bliſs is to my boſom bound,
My Treaſure there.

Knowledge I ſeek, but not a name,
Something beſtow, yet nothing claim,
Nor envy dread, nor covet fame,
Nor hope, nor fear.

If fair or foul, my mind's at reſt,
By ills, by vapours, undiſtreſs'd,
For conſcious Virtue guards my breaſt
From grief or pain.

The joys kind nature gives I taſte,
Am pleas'd and happy while they laſt,
And ever grateful for the paſt,
Dare hope again.

THE Subſcriber being under the Neceſſity of raiſing a Sum of Money very ſoon, hereby intreats the Favour of thoſe of his Cuſtomers, who have not paid a due Regard to his late Solicitations, to take the ſame into Conſideration, and cauſe immediate Payment to be made him: Thoſe in the Country, it is hoped, will more particularly pay Regard to this Notice, and order him Payment thro' the Channel of ſome Friend or Factor in Town, (ſince it is not in his Power to ſee ſuch a Number of them perſonally) which will be of great Service to Their much obliged humble Servant,

HALIFAX, (in Nova-Scotia,) MAY 3.

By Captain Reeves came a commiſſion appointing Lieut. Governor Franklin, to the ſettlement of St. John's in the Bay of Fundy.

Mr. Franklin, has appointed Iſaac Deſchampe, Eſq; chief juſtice of St. John's, with a ſalary of 300l.

Orders are received for carrying on the ſettlement of the iſland of St. John, and for eſtabliſhing a civil government there immediately. Three towns are to be laid out by the names of Charlotte-Town, George-Town, and Prince-Town; and a number of noblemen and gentlemen in England are to have grants of townſhips in the iſland, and there is the greateſt proſpect of its becoming a flouriſhing ſettlement.

BOSTON, MAY 9.

At the General Election at New-Port laſt Wedneſday the 4th inſtant, the Hon. Joſias Lyndon, Eſq; was choſen Governor, the Hon. Nicholas Cooke, Eſq; Deputy-Governor, Henry Ward, Eſq; Secretary, Oliver Arnold, Eſq; Attorney General, and Joſeph Clarke, Eſq; General Treaſurer.

MAY 16. We hear that the petition to his Majeſty, and the repreſentation to his Majeſty's miniſters, &c. from the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives of this province, were all received in England before the packet ſailed.

We hear that the Rev. Samuel Stillman, of this town, is elected a correſponding member of the American Society at Philadelphia, for promoting uſeful knowledge.

Saturday laſt came to town from New-York, Charles Stewart, Eſq; formerly one of the ſurveyors general, but now cashier and receiver general of the cuſtoms in America.

A paſſenger with Captain Smith informs us, that the Rev. Dr. Witherſpoon, choſen Preſident of New-Jerſey College, had preached his farewell ſermon to his congregation at Paiſley, had ſold off all his houſhold furniture, and was ſoon to proceed for New-York or Philadelphia.

With Captain Jarvis came paſſenger, ——— Liſle, Eſq; appointed ſollicitor-general to the hon. board of cuſtoms.

MAY 23. At the general election at Hartford, the ſame Governor, deputy Governor, and aſſiſtants, was choſen as laſt year: the Honourable William Pitkin, Eſq; Governor, had 3033 votes——Honourable Jonathan Trumble, Eſq; deputy Governor, 3233 votes.

NEW-YORK, MAY 30.

By letters from London, we learn, that the miniſtry, and the Nabobs, have, in general, loſt all their elections throughout England; that Sir James Lowther alone had expended no leſs than 125000l. at different elections, and with great difficulty only carried two; that the night on which Mr. Wilkes was returned for Middleſex, his party ſallied into the city, and broke all the windows that were not illuminated on the occaſion, among them the manſion houſe, that of the Earls of Bute and Northumberland, &c.

On Monday laſt his Excellency the Governor ſet out, attended by ſeveral gentlemen of this province, for Albany, in his way to the Mohawk country, in order to ſettle ſome provincial diſputes which have ſubſiſted for ſome time with the Indian nations, and to forward the running out the general boundary line, agreeable to his Majeſty's orders to Sir William Johnſon, Bart. for that purpoſe.

In Capt. Lawrence from London, came paſſengers James De Lancey, Eſq; of this city, and nine other cabbin paſſengers, beſides twenty ſteerage ones:——We are told that Col. Morris, with his lady the Dutcheſs of Gordon, had engaged to come with Captain Lawrence, but ſome unforeſeen accident had prevented them; but 'tis ſaid they will come over very ſhortly:——It is obſerved that all the veſſels lately from England, have brought ſeveral paſſengers, many of the inhabitants of that country being deſirous of ſeeking a better (if they knew where to find it). We alſo hear that Captain Kennedy, who lately went home from this place with his Majeſty's ſhip Coventry, is again appointed to this ſtation in another ſhip of war, and may be expected here in a ſhort time.

PHILADELPHIA, MAY 26.

Captain Jones, from Barbadoes, informs, that there has been a great drought at that place; and that at many of the plantations they had put their plants into the ground twice, and were obliged to dig them up again, and put in others, having failed for want of rain.

At the ſupreme court holden at Carliſle a few days ago, bills were found, by the grand-jury, againſt twenty-three of the reſcuers of Stump and Ironcutter.

Extract of a letter from Fort Pitt, May 9.

"I have now the pleaſure of informing you that the important congreſs which has been holden here with about 2000 Indians, excluſive of women and children, is ſatisfactorily concluded. Colonel Croghan has been indefatigable, and never diſplayed his great influence and addreſs with the nations more ſignally and ſucceſsfully than at this conference, as they met him with the ſtrongeſt prepoſſeſſions againſt us, on account of the repeated and cruel murders of their relations, and the audacious ſettlements on their lands at Redſtone-creek, &c. In my opinion, the province, in no inſtance, ever incurred an expence more ſeaſonably, as it has effectually, for the preſent, compoſed the minds of the Indians, and prevented an impending rupture with them. If the boundary is ſettled this ſummer, and they are paid for their ceſſion to the crown, and the frontier inhabitants will not again ſhamefully violate the laws of hoſpitality and good faith with them, which both chriſtianity and ſound policy forbid, I am perſuaded theſe colonies will long enjoy the ineſtimable bleſſings of trade and tranquility."

JUNE 2. A few days ago arrived in town from Pittſburgh, John Allen and Joſeph Shippen, jun. Eſqrs. commiſſioners from this province at the conferences lately held there with the Weſtern Indians, under the direction of George Croghan, Eſq; Deputy-agent for Indian affairs. At this meeting were preſent upwards of one thouſand Indians, beſides about three hundred women and children, conſiſting of ſix nations, (chiefly Senecas) Shawaneſe, Delawares, Munſies, Mohickons, and Wyandots. After the commiſſioners had conſulted with the Indians in behalf of this government, on account of their late as well as former loſſes, buried the bones of all their deceaſed friends, and covered their graves with preſents of condolance, according to the Indian cuſtom; they in like manner, went through the ſame ceremonies of burying the bones of ſuch of his Majeſty's ſubjects as have been killed by their people ſince the peace. In the anſwers they returned to the ſpeeches delivered to them, they expreſſed the utmoſt ſatisfaction in meeting the commiſſioners from the government of Pennſylvania, and having an opportunity of renewing the peace and friendſhip, which formerly ſubſiſted between them and the people of this province. The ſeveral tribes having been carefully deſired to open their minds fully, by diſcloſing every thing which gave them the leaſt diſcontent or uneaſineſs; they publickly acknowledged that their hearts were now made eaſy, with reſpect to the ſeveral loſſes they had ſuſtained, and that they entirely buried in oblivion all paſt unfortunate, ſo that their children might never remember them hereafter.——They then acquainted the commiſſioners, that the only matter which they had ſtill reaſon to complain of was, the ſettlements made on their lands. But before the conferences ended, during which the Indians behaved in the moſt orderly and friendly manner, they were made ſo fully ſenſible that the government had taken every ſtep to remove thoſe lawleſs people, who had ſettled on their lands, and to apprehend and bring to juſtice the villains Stump and Ironcutter, that they expreſſed great ſatisfaction at our public conduct.——They afterwards, according to their cuſtom, cleared and made ſmooth the road of peace, ſo as to be travelled by all people with pleaſure and ſafety, brightened and ſtrengthened the ancient chain of friendſhip, and engaged, in the moſt heartieſt manner, to unite with their brethren the Engliſh, in holding it faſt for ever, and to live with them in the ſtricteſt harmony for the future.

At the concluſion of the treaty the commiſſioners delivered conſiderable preſents of goods to the ſeveral tribes, in behalf of the province of Pennſylvania; to which Mr. Croghan made an addition on the part of the Crown. The whole ended, to the entire ſatisfaction of all the Indians, who parted with the commiſſioners in ſo friendly a diſpoſition, as promiſes to us the faireſt proſpect of a laſting peace.

We are aſſured that Mr. Croghan diſcovered the greateſt knowledge and addreſs in the management of the Indians on this occaſion, and gave proofs not only of his attachment to his Majeſty's ſervice in general, but the moſt ſincere and earneſt deſire to promote the particular intereſts and welfare of this province.

On Monday afternoon laſt, as the Burlington ſtage-boat was coming down the river, a young lady's hat blew overboard, which, Lieut. Perkins, of the 28th Regiment, endeavouring to recover, by getting into a ſmall boat, fell in the river, and was drowned.

Seven companies of the 28th or Royal Iriſh Regiment, marched for Fort-Pitt this morning.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt. Stewenſon, in ten days from Charles-Town, South-Carolina.

We are deſired to acquaint the public, that there will be three purſes, to be run for over the center courſe of Philadelphia, in October next, one of One Hundred Pounds, and two of Fifty Pounds each. The particulars will be inſerted in our future papers.

Capt. Hall from Maryland informs, that on Friday laſt he ſaw a veſſel, which he took to be a brig, aſhore about 15 leagues to the Northward of Cape Charles.

From St. Chriſtophers we learn, that on the 22*th of April laſt, at night, about twenty men armed, ſuppoſed to be Spaniards and mulattoes, went on board a ſloop, commanded by Joſeph Compte, lying at the mouth of the river Piloſe, in Martinico, ſeized the captain and crew, conſiſting of two white men, and eight negroes; and after robbing the captain of eighty johanneſſes, and all his papers, cut the cables, and made off with the ſloop, ſending the captain, one white man, and a negro, aſhore in the ſloop's boat.*

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) April 21.

Extracts from the JOURNAL of the Houſe of Burgeſſes.

Thurſday, the 7*th of* April, 8 Geo. III. 1768.

RESOLVED,

THAT it is the opinion of this Committee, that an humble and dutiful petition be preſented to our moſt gracious Sovereign, to aſſure him of our moſt cordial and inviolable attachment to his ſacred perſon and government.

To acknowledge, with the higheſt ſenſe of gratitude, the many great and ſignal benefits we have reaped from our parent kingdom under the glorious and auſpicious reigns of his Majeſty and his predeceſſors; and with all humility, to ſubmit to his princely conſideration the tenor of our whole conduct, and that of our anceſtors, as the moſt lively evidence of our duty and affection.

To reiterate our unfeigned thanks to his Majeſty for his gracious and ready aſſent to the repeal of the late oppreſſive Stamp-act, but, at the ſame time, in the moſt decent and reſpectful manner to repreſent to him how very ſhort an interval of peace and happineſs we have enjoyed between that happy event and the enacting ſeveral late acts of the Britiſh Parliament equally burthenſome to his Majeſty's colonies in general, and, as we moſt humbly conceive, equally derogatory to their juſt rights and privileges.

To implore his fatherly protection of this and all our ſiſter colonies, whoſe true and eſſential intereſts will ever incline them not only to wiſh, but to promote the proſperity of Great-Britain, to the utmoſt of their abilities.

RESOLVED,

THAT it is the opinion of this Committee, that a memorial be prepared to be laid before the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of the Britiſh Parliament, to acknowledge the juſtice of Parliament in the repeal of the late oppreſſive Stamp-act, formerly complained of, as derogatory to the rights of the people in this and the other colonies and provinces in America.

To expreſs our due ſenſe of the happineſs and ſecurity we derive from our connection with and dependence upon Great-Britain: The pleaſure we enjoy in a perſuaſion that our endeavours in making ſuch ſuitable returns for their protection, as might render the connection deſirable to both, have not been unſucceſsful: And our deep concern that any incident ſhould interrupt that harmony we wiſh ever to ſubſiſt.

To aſſert with decent firmneſs, becoming freemen, but at the ſame time with great deference to the wiſdom of Parliament, the rights of the coloniſts, to be bound by ſuch laws only, reſpecting their internal policy or taxation, as are conſented to by Repreſentatives choſen by themſelves: And to repreſent that we cannot but conſider ſeveral late acts of the Britiſh legiſlature, impoſing duties and taxes to be collected in the colonies, as an infringment of thoſe rights.

And to intreat their Lordſhips, the hereditary guardians of Britiſh liberty, to interpoſe their power in procuring a repeal of thoſe acts, and in preſerving to us, his Majeſty's diſtant ſubjects, the full enjoyment of all our natural conſtitutional rights.

RESOLVED,

THAT it is the opinion of this Committee, that a remonſtrance on the ſame ſubject, and on the like effect, be prepared, to be laid before the Hon. Houſe of Commons.

The ſaid reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond time, were, upon the queſtion ſeverally put thereupon, agreed to by the Houſe nemine contradicente.

ORDERED, That Mr. Bland, Mr. Treaſurer, Mr. Pendleton, Mr. Weſtbridge, Mr. Archibald Cary, Mr. Blair, Mr. Dudley Digges, Mr. Page, Mr. Eyre, Mr. Francis Lightfoot Lee, Mr. Benjamin Harriſon, and Mr. Alexander, do draw up an humble and dutiful petition to his Majeſty, a memorial to the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal of the Britiſh Parliament, and a remonſtrance to be laid before the Honourable Houſe of Commons, purſuant to the ſaid reſolutions.

YORK, (Virginia) MAY 2. On Monday night the 9th inſtant, came into this port, a ſchooner about forty tons burthen, which, from the teſtimony of two ſeamen belonging thereto, and the confeſſion of one Henry Dunn, alias Price, late mate thereof, but who has ſince abſconded, appears to have been run-away with by ſaid Dunn, from port Beaufort, in South-Carolina. She had on board about 500 buſhels of Indian corn, ſundry plantation utenſils, ſuch as broad hoes, axes, whip ſaws, hand mill ſtones, &c. and two negroes, which the ſaid Dunn had diſpoſed of before the fraud was diſcovered. The veſſel is ſaid to be the property of Captain Robert Orr, of South-Carolina. The owner is deſired to make ſpeedy application for ſaid veſſel, as ſhe may ſuffer great injury from the worm, if continued any length of time in this river. J. AMBLER, Collector.

Care is taken of the veſſel and cargo.

WILLIAMSBURG, (Virginia) JUNE 16. In a Liverpool paper, of April 29th, there is an account of Mr. Wilkes's having ſurrendered himſelf, according to promiſe, to the court of King's bench, on Wedneſday the 20th of that month, after making a ſpeech to the court, which being long, and the paper juſt come to hand, we cannot inſert this week. A paragraph ſays that his ſurrender was not accepted, after the matter had been argued by council a conſiderable time; and that the ſenſe of the court was that as he did not appear there by virtue of a capias utlegatum, or any other proceſs, nor by ſurrender to the ſheriff, they ſhould decline taking cognizance of the matter, as not coming before them in the proper and legal manner. Another paragraph ſays that the ſame afternoon a writ of capias utlegatum was iſſued againſt Mr. Wilkes, upon which he was taken into cuſtody, and that the proceedings on the writ of error would ſoon be argued. A third paragraph ſays that ſeveral counties and boroughs intend to inſtruct their members not to conſent to the expulſion of Mr. Wilkes, and that it was generally believed the miniſtry intended moving the houſe for that meaſure.

Sir James Lowther is returned a member of parliament for the county of Cumberland.

NEWBERN, (North-Carolina) JUNE 17. Laſt week the ſloop Sally, Zephaniah Pinckham, maſter, belonging to William Ellis, Eſq; of this place, cleared out on a WHALING VOYAGE, being compleatly fitted for that purpoſe, the whole apparatus having been imported from Boſton. As this is the firſt veſſel from this town that has been fitted out on that ſcheme, it is to be hoped, ſhould ſhe be ſucceſsful, it will determine others to purſue ſo valuable a branch of buſineſs; eſpecially at a time when this province ſtands in ſo great need of a better ſtaple than Naval ſtores.

At the ſuperior court at Willmington, three perſons were capitally convicted, and on Friday laſt were executed there. Theſe perſons, were Noel Williams, and two of the Seymours, three of the moſt notorious horſe-ſtealers in the back ſettlements.

XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 12.

THE Great and General Court of Maſſachuſetts-Bay met at Boſton the 25th of May laſt: His Excellency Governor Bernard approved of the Honourable Thomas Cuſhing, Eſq; whom they choſe for their Speaker; but of the Counſellors then by them elected, he objected to the following, viz. James Otis, Joſeph Gerriſh, Thomas Sanders, Jerathmael Bowers, John Hancock, and Artemas Ward, Eſquires.

Wedneſday laſt Captain Doran arrived here from St. Auguſtine, who informs us, that the Veſſel on board of which Dr. Turnbull was had arrived there, as alſo all the Reſt of the Veſſels who had on board his Greek Settlers, and that moſt of them were already gone to the Muſquetas.—— Mr. Samuel Hopkins, of this Town, came Paſſenger in Captain Doran.

"Letters from St. Auguſtine inform us, that Talleches, "a Head beloved Man of the Lower Creeks, and a great "Medal Chief, waited on his Excellency Governor Grant "with a white Eagle's Tail and a Talk from his Towns, "importing, "That in Attention to what had been re"quired at the Congreſs at Picolata, the Nation was de"ſirous of giving Satisfaction; and that Bonaichee, the "Head Man of a Town, had been killed, becauſe he had "promoted the Outrages and Murders at St. Mary's River, "wherein his two Nephews were principally concerned; "and they hoped his Excellency would look upon the "Death of the ſaid Head Man, as ſufficient Satisfaction for "the Murder." The ſame Letters add, "It plainly ap"pearing that Bonaichee, abovementioned, had ſet on and "prompted his Nephews to kill the People on St. Mary's "River, and afterwards, upon Satisfaction being demanded, "had conſented that they ſhould be puniſhed, in Revenge "of which, and to ſave themſelves, the Nephews murdered "their Uncle; Governor Grant would not conſider his "being killed as any Satisfaction, but inſiſted that one of "the Perſons immediately concerned, ſhould ſuffer Death." "As the Superintendant directed the Commiſſary in the "Creek Nation to demand Satisfaction for former Murders, "as well as for that at St. Mary's, it is probable the In"dian, mentioned in a former Gazette to be put to Death "on that Account, was the above-named Bonaichee.

"The Cherokee Indians have fixed on the 25th of "October next, for meeting the Commiſſioners from Vir"ginia at Chiſwell's Mines on the Great Conohway, in "order to proceed with the Superintendant's Deputy on the "important Service of marking the Boundary Line behind "that Province.

"Laſt Week two Frenchmen arrived here from Fort-"Prince George, who had been taken Priſoners by the In"dians, and were ſent down to the Superintendant by the "Commiſſary in the Cherokee Nation, who ſupplied them "with ſome Neceſſaries. They ſay, their Buſineſs was to "procure Buffalo and Veniſon for the Garriſon at the Illi"nois, and were ſo employed when taken. All the Perſons of Northern Indians are not yet returned home, but continue their Depredations on the Cherokees. Several People from the back Settlements of Virginia, going towards the Miſſiſippi, have been killed and ſcalped, it is uncertain by what Indians."
